WEDNESDAY 4 DECEMBER

VISIT CHÂTEAU MALMAISON

DEPARTURE: 09H30

CAPACITY: 100 participants

Built between 1800 and 1802, the Château de Malmaison, acquired in 1799 by Joséphine Bonaparte, is a unique example for its Consular style furniture. The Château de Malmaison was occupied under the Consulate by the imperial couple. From 1800 to 1802, with the Tuileries in Paris, it was thus the seat of the French government. It was the scene of many receptions, concerts, balls, lunches and Joséphine had her famous rose-garden planted on the estate and she also had a Temple of Love built nearby.
