

One-Belt-One-Road

Inclusive and Sustainable City Exhibition and Dialogue

17 to 21 October 2016

Vienna International Centre
UNIDO Headquarters
Vienna, Austria

C-Building, 4th Floor, Boardroom D

Biographies

Co-Organizers:

In partnership with:

#SilkRoad

For more information, please contact city2016@unido.org

DAY 4: 20 OCTOBER 2016 – OPENING SESSION AND HIGH-LEVEL FORUM

OPENING CEREMONY

Moderator

Ms. Fatou Haidara

Managing Director, Policy and Programme Support; Interim Director, Department of Human Resource Management, United Nations Industrial Development Organization

Ms. Fatou Haidara is responsible for setting and implementing the strategic direction and goals of UNIDO's Policy and Programme Support (PPS) in line with organizational objectives. She provides leadership and effective and efficient management for all services and activities related to PPS. She also assists the Director General in promoting cooperation, coherence and partnership with other organizations, particularly those in the United Nations system. Ms. Haidara is also Interim Director of the Department of Human Resource Management and is responsible for the strategic management and leadership of the Organization's human capital, including the development of policies and the strategic deployment of human resources throughout the Organization.

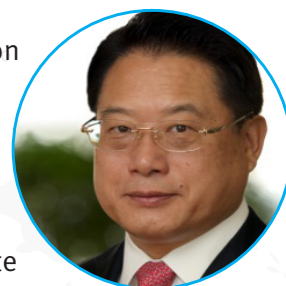

Before joining UNIDO, she served the Government of Mali in several ministerial positions for eight years. In these capacities, she participated actively in strategic negotiations between the Government of Mali and Bretton Woods institutions, as well as other development partners. She led many ministerial delegations to international forums, in particular the first World Trade Organization Ministerial Conference in Seattle.

WELCOME REMARKS

Mr. LI Yong

Director General, United Nations Industrial Development Organization

Mr. LI Yong, Director General of the United Nations Industrial Development Organization (UNIDO), has had an extensive career as a senior economic and financial policymaker. As Vice-Minister of Finance of the People's Republic of China and a member of the Monetary Policy Committee of the Central Bank for a decade, Mr. LI has long been involved in setting and harmonizing fiscal, monetary and industrial policies and in supporting sound economic growth in China. Throughout his career, he has advocated financial-sector reform and prompted major financial institutions to establish corporate governance, deal with toxic assets and strengthen risk management.

Mr. LI prioritizes fiscal and financial measures to promote agricultural development and small and medium-sized enterprises, both of which represent cornerstones for creating economic opportunities, reducing poverty and promoting gender equality. He played a key role in China's cooperation with multilateral development organizations, such as the World Bank Group and the Asian Development Bank.

Statements by

Ms. Bernadette Gierlinger

Vice Minister, Foreign Economic Policy and European Integration, Federal Ministry of Science, Research and Economy, Austria

Ms. Bernadette Gierlinger worked for nearly two decades in tax law and finance, with positions in both private firms and public departments. From 2002 until 2005, she held the position of Deputy Director of Finance at the Federal Ministry of Finance where she coordinated tax policy, prepared government bills and oversaw the calculation of implementation costs. Ms. Gierlinger has held the position of Vice Minister for Foreign Economic Policy and European Integration at the Federal Ministry of Science, Research and Economy since 2010. Her main responsibilities include coordinating foreign trade and investment policy, trade promotion and bilateral issues, as well as acting as Austria's representative in the European Union Trade Policy Committee. Ms. Gierlinger holds a master's degree in Business Informatics and Computer Science from the University of Vienna in Austria.

H.E. Mr. Sheikh Abdulla Rashid al Khalifa

Governor, Southern Governorate, Kingdom of Bahrain

H.E. Mr. Sheikh Abdulla Rashid al Khalifa is currently a committee member of the National Anti-Drug Committee in Bahrain and president of the Anti-Violence and Addiction programme, in addition to his duties as Governor of the Southern Governorate. He also leads the "Maan" programme to fight violence and addiction. He completed his Master of Business Administration and his Bachelor of Science at Bentley University in Waltham, MA.

Mr. Jorge Chediek

Envoy of the United Nations Secretary-General on South-South Cooperation; Director, United Nations Office on South-South Cooperation

Mr. Jorge Chediek is the Director of the United Nations Office for South-South Cooperation, leading the promotion and coordination of South-South cooperation for development within the United Nations system. From 2010 to 2015, he served as Resident Coordinator and Resident Representative of the United Nations Development Programme (UNDP) in Brazil. In that capacity, he was also the Director of the International Policy Centre for Inclusive Growth, UNDP's global forum for South-South dialogue on innovative social development policies. Mr. Chediek holds a master's degree in Foreign Service from Georgetown University in Washington, D.C.

Mr. CAI E-Sheng

Chairman, Finance Center for South-South Cooperation (FC-SSC), Hong Kong, China

Mr. CAI E-Sheng serves as Chairman of the Finance Center for South-South Cooperation and has served as Executive Director of the China Society for Finance and Banking since 2014. Mr. CAI joined the People's Bank of China (PBC) in 1975 where he served as Assistant to the Governor from 1998 and Governor of the PBC Shanghai Branch from 2000. He then acted as Chairman of the Supervisory Board for the China Everbright Group and the Citic Group Corporation beginning in 2001. From 2005 to 2013, he worked as Vice Chairman of the China Banking Regulatory Commission. He was elected a member of the Chinese People's Political Consultative Conference in 2013. Mr. Cai holds a bachelor's degree in Economics from Shanxi University of Finance and Economics in China.

Ms. Shamshad Akhtar

Executive Secretary, United Nations Economic and Social Commission for Asia and the Pacific (UNESCAP)

Ms. Shamshad Akhtar was appointed Under-Secretary-General of the United Nations and the tenth Executive Secretary of the Economic and Social Commission for Asia and the Pacific by United Nations Secretary-General Ban Ki-moon in December 2013. Formerly the Secretary-General's Senior Adviser on Economics and Finance and Assistant Secretary-General for Economic Development at the Department of Economic and Social Affairs, she led the UN-wide coordination of the post-2015 development agenda. Ms. Akhtar has previously served as Governor of the Central Bank of Pakistan and as Vice President of the Middle East and North Africa Region of the World Bank.

Ms. Akhtar holds a PhD in Economics from Scotland's Paisley College of Technology, as well as a master's in Development Economics from the University of Sussex in the United Kingdom and an MSc in Economics from Quaid-e-Azam University in Islamabad.

Mr. ZHU Shanzhong

Executive Director, World Tourism Organization

Mr. ZHU Shanzhong is in charge of the overall supervision of Technical Cooperation and Services and Special Field Programmes at the World Tourism Organization, accounting for the formulation, approval and implementation of their activities in the development and promotion of the tourism industry as an engine for socioeconomic growth and poverty alleviation. From late 2008 to 2013, he was Vice Chairman of the China National Tourism Administration (CNTA), overseeing international relations, marketing and promotion in domestic and overseas markets, tourism security, and the establishment of a public service network. From 1989 to 2008, he served CNTA in different capacities, namely as Director of the CNTA Sydney Office, Director of the CNTA New York Office, Deputy Director General of the International Marketing Department and Director General of the Marketing and Communication Department. From 1985 to 1989, he was Department Manager of the China International Travel Service, the largest travel company in China.

Mr. ZHU received his master's degree in Tourism Economic Management from the New School in New York. Prior to that, he received his Bachelor of Arts in English Language and Literature from Nanjing University in China.

Mr. CHEN Rongzhou

Vice Mayor, Quanzhou, China

Mr. CHEN Rongzhou was appointed Vice Mayor of Quanzhou Municipal Government in 2007 and is responsible for the promotion of economic development, the improvement of people's livelihoods and the construction of infrastructure. Prior to his current position, he held various positions within the Quanzhou Municipal Committee.

Mr. CHEN graduated with a bachelor's degree from the Health Faculty at Shanghai First Medical College, now Fudan University. He has a master's degree in Business Administration from the School of Management at the University of Science and Technology Beijing.

Video message: The role of cities, industries and the One-Belt-One-Road initiative in advancing the 2030 agenda for sustainable development

Dr. David Nabarro

Special Adviser on the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development, United Nations Executive Office of the Secretary-General

Dr. David Nabarro serves as Special Adviser of the Secretary-General on the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development and Climate Change. He works with governments and other stakeholders to galvanize the implementation of both the 2030 and Climate Action Agendas. He also oversees the Secretary-General's special initiatives, including Every Woman Every Child, Global Pulse and Zero Hunger Challenge, as well as the United Nations Office for Partnerships.

Dr. Nabarro holds a master's degree in Medicine from the University of Oxford, a medical degree from the University of Oxford and a master's degree in Public Health from London University.

SESSION 1: INTER-REGIONAL STRATEGIES UNDER THE 2030 AGENDA FOR SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT

Moderator

Mr. Philippe Scholtès

Managing Director, Programme Development and Technical Cooperation, United Nations Industrial Development Organization

Mr. Philippe Scholtès is Managing Director of Programme Development and Technical Cooperation at the United Nations Industrial Development Organization (UNIDO). At UNIDO Headquarters in Vienna, he oversees UNIDO's technical assistance programmes – a portfolio of over 700 projects totaling one billion dollars, being implemented by 220 staff and over 1,200 project personnel in a hundred countries. Prior to this, Mr. Scholtès was Director of UNIDO's Agribusiness Development Department. He also served as UNIDO Representative in Viet Nam and as Regional Director for South Asia in New Delhi, India.

Mr. Scholtès is a Belgian national and holds a Master of Science in Engineering (majoring in electromechanics) and a Master of Science in Economics (majoring in mathematical economics). He has published articles on economics, energy economics and industrial organizations, among other areas, in several peer-reviewed journals.

Keynote Speaker

Mr. Peter Frankopan

Director, Oxford Centre for Byzantine Research; Senior Research Fellow, Worcester College, University of Oxford, United Kingdom

Mr. Peter Frankopan is a historian at the University of Oxford, specializing in global history, the life of cities, exchanges of faith, ideas, goods and language across Asia and between Asia and Europe, particularly along the Silk Roads. His interests include the relationship between urban settlements and their hinterlands, the evolution of civic culture and how cities have changed in the past and will change in the future. Mr. Frankopan's new book, The Silk Roads: A New History of the World, was published in August 2015. It was a Sunday Times #1 Bestseller, topped the charts in India and China and was named The Daily Telegraph's History Book of the Year 2015. Mr. Frankopan holds a degree in History from Cambridge University and a DPhil from the University of Oxford.

Panellists

Ms. Cristina Pinna

Policy Adviser, Global and Regional Partnerships, United Nations Development Programme

Ms. Cristina Pinna works as Policy Adviser in the Policy and Partnership Unit-Global and Regional Cooperation Team in the United Nations Development Programme's (UNDP) China office. She is in charge of conducting policy research and strengthening partnerships to support China's positive engagement in global development and the implementation of the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development. In particular, she has been working to strengthen the UNDP flagship initiative on global governance, with a special focus on G20 issues, the One-Belt-One-Road initiative, BRICS and engagement with new financing institutions such as the Asian Infrastructure Investment Bank and the New Development Bank.

Prior to joining UNDP, Ms. Pinna collaborated as co-investigator for a United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization pilot project with the Chinese University of Hong Kong. She worked as a research fellow at Peking University in China and as a policy analyst for the Italian Ministry of Foreign Affairs. Ms. Pinna holds a PhD in Political Science and International Relations from the University of Cagliari in Italy and conducted her postdoctoral studies at the University of Toronto.

One-Belt

Mr. Michael Postl

Head, Department of Multilateral Economic Relations, Investment Treaties and International Finance Institutions, Federal Ministry for Europe, Integration and Foreign Affairs, Austria

Mr. Michael Postl has worked as Head of the Department for Foreign Economic Relations, Common Trade Policy, Export Promotion, Investment Agreements and International Financial Institutions at the Federal Ministry for Europe, Integration and Foreign Affairs since February 2012. He is also a lecturer at the University of Innsbruck in Public International Law and International Relations. Since September 2015, he has been the Austrian National Coordinator for the Central European Initiative.

Previous assignments include the Head of the Austrian Embassy for Armenia, Georgia and Uzbekistan and Austrian Ambassador in Tehran. Mr. Michael Postl holds a PhD in European, Constitutional and Public International Law from the University of Vienna in Austria.

One-Road

Mr. Renaud Sorieul

Director, International Trade Law Division, United Nations Office of Legal Affairs; Secretary of United Nations Commission on International Trade Law

Mr. Renaud Sorieul is the Director of the International Trade Law Division of the United Nations Office of Legal Affairs, which functions as the substantive secretariat for the United Nations Commission on International Trade Law (UNCITRAL). He is the eighth Secretary of UNCITRAL since the Commission was established by the General Assembly in 1966. Since he joined the UNCITRAL secretariat in 1989, he has been actively involved in the UNCITRAL Working Group on International Payments, which prepared the UNCITRAL Model Law on International Credit Transfers. He then served as Secretary of the UNCITRAL Working Group on Electronic Commerce, which drafted the UNCITRAL Model Law on Electronic Commerce and the UNCITRAL Model Law on Electronic Signatures. Since 2002, he has been Secretary of the UNCITRAL Working Group on Arbitration and Conciliation. A French national, Mr. Sorieul holds degrees in private law from the University of Paris (Paris II). He is also a graduate of the Institut d'études politiques de Paris and the École Nationale de la Magistrature.

Ms. Alla Peressolova

Head of UNWTO Silk Road Programme, World Tourism Organization

Ms. Alla Peressolova has worked at the World Tourism Organization (UNWTO) for over twenty years in different areas and is currently in charge of the UNWTO Silk Road Programme, creating a collaborative platform for effective activities to raise the profile of Silk-Road tourism and to support Silk-Road destinations in the development of responsible and sustainable tourism across Europe, Asia and the Middle East. Currently thirty-three countries are actively engaged in the Programme.

Prior to her current position, Ms. Peressolova was responsible for the UNWTO's relations with major international fairs. Over the years, she has established strong alliances with over twenty international and regional fairs, developing ongoing programmes and events. She oversaw several successful events, including the annual Ministers' Summit, which attracts over 100 ministers of tourism every year to the World Travel Market London. Among her other projects are numerous communications and awareness campaigns, international conferences and capacity-building workshops. Ms. Peressolova holds an undergraduate degree in English Philology and Linguistics and a postgraduate degree in Tourism Development Strategies and Marketing.

Mr. Manuel Montes

Senior Adviser, Finance and Development, The South Centre, Switzerland

Mr. Manuel Montes is Senior Adviser on Finance and Development at the South Centre, an intergovernmental think tank created by and for developing countries. Mr. Montes works specifically on financing for development and the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development, investment treaties and tax cooperation, and industrial policy.

Mr. Montes was previously Chief of Development Strategies at the United Nations Department of Economic and Social Affairs where he led the team that produced the World Economic and Social Survey. He has previously worked as the United Nations Development Programme's Regional Programme Coordinator for the Asia Pacific Trade and Investment Initiative based in Sri Lanka and as Programme Officer for International Economic Policy at the Ford Foundation in New York.

Mr. Montes was Senior Fellow and Coordinator for economic studies at the East-West Centre in Honolulu from 1989 to 1999 and Associate Professor of Economics at the University of the Philippines from 1981 to 1989. He holds a PhD in Economics from Stanford University.

Mr. SUN Xiaokun

Chairman, The Board of Supervisors, China-Africa Development Fund, China

Mr. SUN Xiaokun has served at the China Development Bank (CDB) since 1994. During his time at the CDB, he has acted as Director of the New Protocol Implementation Office, Deputy Director of the Risk Management Authority, Deputy Director of the Information Technology Bureau and Deputy Director of the Personnel Bureau. He has extensive experience with mid-long-term credit management and risk management.

Mr. SUN graduated from the Management School of Fudan University with a Bachelor of Science and holds a master's degree in Economy from Jinan University.

Mr. Ahmed M. Darwish

Chairman, General Authority for Suez Canal Economic Zone, Egypt

Mr. Ahmed M. Darwish was Minister of State for Administration Development from 2004 to 2011. While in this position, he oversaw three major portfolios: e-government, institutional and human-resource development, and governance institutionalization. His work in this area has been internationally recognized. The Government of Egypt's electronic and web services ranked 23 out of 192 countries according to a 2010 report produced by UN-PAN, and the program received the best service award both from the United Nations in New York and the African Union in Johannesburg.

Mr. Darwish is a consultant for a number of international organizations, including UNDP, UNIDO, UNESCO, FAO, ESCWA, the European Union and the World Bank, government organizations, and companies in the Middle East, Africa, Europe and the United States. He received his Bachelor and Master of Science from Cairo University and completed his PhD in Computer Engineering at the University of California, Davis.

SESSION 2: SUSTAINABLE AND INNOVATIVE CITIES AND INTEGRATED REGIONAL DEVELOPMENT

Moderator One-Belt

Mr. Per Boesgaard

Coordinator of Partnerships and Innovation, Copenhagen Climate Plan 2025, City of Copenhagen, Denmark

Mr. Per Boesgaard is an experienced networker and coordinator focused on the needs and possibilities of cooperation and partnership across the public and private sectors with the end goal of obtaining sustainable and climate friendly solutions. Mr. Boesgaard and his colleagues act as matchmakers and have established a platform where resources and knowledge are able to meet the demand for a carbon neutral, sustainable and liveable city for the benefit of Copenhagen and cities across the world. He holds a master's degree in Science, Chemistry and Environment from the Technical University of Denmark.

Keynote Speaker

Ms. Shamshad Akhtar (please see page 5)

Panellists

Mr. Christoph Matznetter

Vice-President, Austrian Federal Economic Chamber, Austria

Mr. Christoph Matznetter has acted as Vice President of the Austrian Federal Economic Chambers since 2009. He is a member of the Social Democratic Party of Austria and since 2005, has held the position of Chairman of the Social Democratic Party's Business Federation. He was Elected Representative of the National Council of the Social Democratic Party from 2008 until 2013, and from 2007 to 2008, he acted as State Secretary at the Austrian Federal Ministry of Finance. Mr. Matznetter holds a master's degree in Political Science and a PhD from the University of Vienna.

Mr. HAN Chunlin

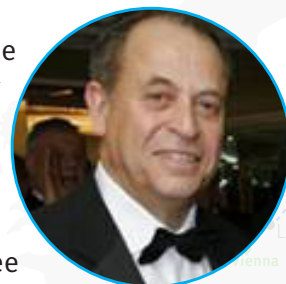

Vice Mayor, Chengdu, China

Mr. HAN Chunlin has held the position of Vice Mayor of Chengdu since 2014. In 2007, he became General Director of the Administrative Committee of Chengdu Hi-Tech Zone, a position he held until 2014. Prior to that, he was Deputy Director of the Administrative Committee of Chengdu Hi-Tech Zone and held a variety of high-level positions at the University of Electronic Science and Technology of China, including Assistant to the Chief of the Division of Science and Technology, Deputy Chief of the Division of Science and Technology and Chief of the Division of Science and Technology.

Mr. Stephen Perry

Chairman, 48 Group Club, United Kingdom

Mr. Stephen Perry is the Chairman of the 48 Group Club, which promotes positive trade and other relations between the United Kingdom and China. He pioneered the Young Icebreakers, which works to advance the Club's aim among young entrepreneurs. Mr. Perry has made over 200 trips to China and negotiated many joint ventures with a value in excess of one billion dollars. He is the Vice Chairman of the China-Britain Business Council, a Fellow of University College London, a Trustee of the Needham Research Institute at Cambridge and a member of the Chairman's Organizing Committee of China.

Mr. Ireneusz Jabłonski

Vice Mayor, Lodz, Poland

Mr. Ireneusz Jabłonski has been Deputy Mayor of the City of Lodz since 2015. He works as a specialist in the area of strategic and operational management, building, restructuring, and managing large businesses and public organizations. Since 2002, he has been Vice President of Bank Czestochowa SA, overseeing its restructuring and serving as Project Manager. As Vice President of Postbank, he has been responsible for the bank's restructuring and its innovative program to implement a wide range of financial services for postal institutions since 2003. Mr. Jabłonski graduated from the Technical University of Lodz and attended postgraduate studies in Banking at the Warsaw School of Economics.

Ms. Gudrun Henn

Director, International Cooperation Projects and Technology Exports, Federal Ministry of Science, Research and Economy, Austria

Ms. Gudrun Henn has held the position of Director of International Cooperation Projects and Technology Exports at the Federal Ministry of Science, Research and Economy since 2002. Her work at the Federal Ministry focuses on foreign economic policy projects, technology exports, international environmental issues, global climate and environmental policy (coordinating the implementation of environmental legislation via voluntary agreements), national environmental affairs, and environmental engineering. Prior to this, Ms. Henn worked in Public Relations and Marketing at Novomatic and Brüder Henn.

Mr. Michał Mrozek

President of the Management Board and Country Chief Executive Officer, HSBC Bank Polska S.A., Poland

Mr. Michał Mrozek was appointed President of the Management Board of HSBC Bank Polska SA in January 2015. He has twenty-five years of broad-based experience covering corporate and commercial banking, capital markets, risk management, strategic planning, business integration and regulatory affairs. He joined HSBC from Citibank where he held a number of senior roles, most recently the roles of Managing Director of Strategy and International Business in New and Deputy Chief Executive Officer of the Management Board of Citibank Handlowy in Warsaw, where he was responsible for institutional clients. He previously worked at Price Waterhouse, now PwC, where he was engaged in privatization projects.

Mr. Mrozek graduated from Georgetown University in Washington, D.C. with an honours degree in International Trade and Finance. He holds a “Bene Merito” award and a “Bronze Cross of Merit” for his contribution to promoting Poland internationally and in developing the Polish banking sector, respectively.

SESSION 3: CITIES AND THEIR FUTURES IN THE CONTEXT OF THE “ONE-BELT-ONE-ROAD”

Moderator

Ms. Shamshad Akhtar (please see page 5)

Keynote Speaker

Mr. Gerhard O. Braun

Professor, Institute for Geographical Sciences, Free University of Berlin, Germany

Mr. Gerhard O. Braun graduated from the University of Würzburg with a degree in Geography, Mathematics and Psychology. After five years as Assistant Professor, Mr. Braun was hired by the University of Frankfurt in 1974, and in 1975, by the Free University Berlin as Professor for Urban Studies, Geographic Information Science and Statistics. In 2009, he founded the Institute for International Urban Studies at the International Academy Berlin. For some twenty years, he has been invited as a guest professor at Wilfrid Laurier University in Waterloo, Canada.

Mr. Braun’s main fields of research include inter- and intra-urban systems studies within the subfields of social segregation, migration, housing and employment studies, urban economics, planning, governance, modeling, scenario analyses and theory building at all spatial and contextual scales based on sustainable balance concepts. Most of this research has been funded by various national and international research foundations. Mr. Braun’s recent research has concentrated on planning concepts such as smart growth, transportation, sustainable urban development and new spatial patterns as the result of global economic restructuring.

Panellists

Ms. Tanja Wehsely

Member, Vienna Parliament; Member, Vienna City Council, Austria

Ms. Tanja Wehsely acts as Chairperson of the Committee for Finance, Economy and International Affairs, a Member of the Committee on Women, Education, Youth, Integration and Personnel, and a Member of the Committee on Housing, Residential Construction and Urban Renewal in her current positions as a Member of the Vienna Parliament and Vienna City Council. Prior to her current position, she was a lecturer on lobbying and public affairs at St. Pölten University of Applied Sciences. She has also worked in the area of public relations for the Association of Viennese Youth Centres. She holds a Magister degree in Social Sciences from St. Pölten University of Applied Sciences.

Mr. Alexandr Aleksandrovich Zhilkin

Governor, Astrakhan Region, Russian Federation

Mr. Alexandr Aleksandrovich Zhilkin became the first Deputy to the Head of Astrakhan's regional administration in 1991. His main areas of work included new economic policy, in particular fostering the development of emerging economic sectors in order to fight unemployment. During this same time, Mr. Zhilkin presided over the inter-banking council. Due to the stabilization of the financial system, which he and his co-workers facilitated, the 1998 Russian financial crisis affected Astrakhan to a much lesser degree than other regions of the country. In August 2004, he became Acting Governor of the Astrakhan Region and went on to win the elections for Governor in December of that same year.

Mr. Zhilkin studied Physics and Mathematics at Astrakhan Pedagogical Institute. He later acquired a postgraduate degree in Economics and became Associate Professor at Astrakhan State University. Shortly following his instatement as Governor, he completed his PhD in Biological Sciences.

Ms. Francesca Cangelli

Deputy Mayor, Matera, Italy

Ms. Francesca Cangelli is currently Associate Professor in Administrative Law at the University of Foggia. Since 1999, she has been a member of the Italian Association of Planning Law and has participated as rapporteur in several congresses. She is a member of the editorial staff of the Italian journal "Comparative Public and European Law". Ms. Cangelli holds a law degree from Libera Università Internazionale degli Studi Sociali in Rome and a PhD in Administrative and Public Law from the University of Ferrara.

Mr. HANG Dong

Vice Mayor, Fuzhou, China

Mr. HANG Dong is in charge of domestic trade, the rectification and standardization of the economic order, investment promotion, foreign economy and trade, overseas affairs (including Hong Kong, Macau and Taiwan), the 21st Century Maritime Silk Road, and food security, industry and commerce in the Municipality of Fuzhou.

Mr. HANG previously served as Deputy Secretary and then Secretary of the Fuzhou Municipal Committee of the Communist Youth League of China, Chairman of the Fuzhou Youth Federation and Deputy Secretary of the Party Committee of Fuzhou Municipal Economic and Technological Development Zone, among other positions. He has been Deputy Mayor of Fuzhou since October 2015.

Mr. Marcus Kottinger

Solutions Architect, IBM, Austria

Mr. Marcus Kottinger started his carrier at IBM in 1995 as a technical consultant in the automotive industry. In 1998, he transferred to the bank and insurance sector, where he worked as a project manager on several IT projects in Central-Southeast Europe and in the Commonwealth of Independent States. After seven years, Mr. Kottinger moved to Siemens in the Energy, Asset and Building Management sector where he oversaw IT projects in the areas of Smart City, Smart Grid and Industry 4.0. With this expertise in process- and energy-performance measurement, Mr. Kottinger returned to IBM in 2014 to support projects related to Industry 4.0 and “Internet of Things” in Smart Cities, Utilities, Telecommunications and Life Sciences.

Mr. CHEN Feng

Chief Technology Officer, Shenzhen Yunlink Technology, China

Mr. CHEN Feng is responsible for research and development, technology direction, and product planning for Shenzhen Yunlink Technology. He has twenty years of experience in product research, development and management, as well as experience in the fields of digital imaging, network communications, internet telephony, “Internet of Things”, smart homes and smart cities. He has worked previously at Eastman Kodak, Boston Technology, Converse Network Systems and Lorent Networks. Mr. CHEN holds a PhD from the University of Massachusetts in Amherst.

Mr. Serguei Golovanov

Chief Executive Officer, GOLEM Integrated Microelectronics Solutions, Austria

Mr. Serguei Golovanov directs the implementation of Pharos software at UNIDO, enabling digital transformation for sustainable industries and cities, factories of the future, and smart connected assets, as well as water and waste management, energy, environment and quality. As an expert consultant, he has contributed to UNIDO projects in thirty countries over the last twenty years and has in depth experience in advanced systems sciences, design and modeling of complex cyber-physical systems, ICT architectures, and metrology.

Prior to his work as an entrepreneur, Mr. Golovanov was a researcher at the International Institute for Applied Systems Analysis in the area of sustainable development of the biosphere and climate change. As an internationally recognized expert, he has spoken at various international events and conferences. Mr. Golovanov holds a degree in Engineering from Moscow Aviation Technical University and a PhD in Systems and Computer Sciences from the Institute of Systems Studies at the Russian Academy of Sciences.

DAY 5: 21 OCTOBER 2016 – PARTNERSHIP DIALOGUE, THEMATIC WORKSHOP AND MAYORAL FORUM

SESSION 4: PARTNERSHIPS AND PARTNER DIALOGUE

Moderator

Mr. ZOU Ciyong

Director, Department of Partnerships and Results Monitoring, United Nations Industrial Development Organization

Mr. ZOU Ciyong was Deputy Director General of the International Department in the Ministry of Finance prior to joining the United Nations Industrial Development Organization in 2013. Previously, he held positions as Alternate Chief Negotiator for China during the negotiations surrounding the establishment of a BRICS-led Development Bank in 2013, Alternate to the Chinese Executive Director at the World Bank from 2010 to 2011, as well as Global Environmental Facility Operational Focal Point for China from 2008 to 2009.

Mr. ZOU, a Chinese national, obtained a PhD in Economics from the Graduate School of the Research Institute for Fiscal Science, Ministry of Finance, Beijing and master's degrees in Public Policy and Management and Political Science from Manchester University in the United Kingdom and Peking University in Beijing, China, respectively.

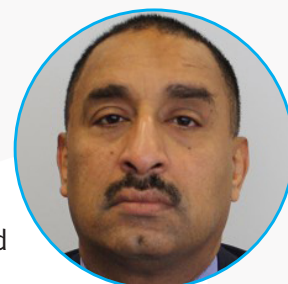

Keynote Speaker

Mr. Per Boesgaard (please see page 9)

Mr. Hashim Hussein

Head, UNIDO Investment and Technology Promotion Office (ITPO), Bahrain

Mr. Hashim Hussein has been active in the field of industrial development, investment and technology promotion for over twenty years. He has held various responsibilities in different countries, including the United States, Egypt, Sudan and Bahrain. He first joined the United Nations Industrial Development Organization (UNIDO) in 1991 as a Programme Officer posted to Bahrain and became the Head of UNDO's Investment and Technology Promotion Office there in 1996.

Mr. Hussein holds a PhD in International Law of the Sea from the University of Nantes, France. He completed a Doctoral Research Programme at the Centre for International Development and Conflict Management at the University of Maryland, College Park.

Mr. Bartosz Michałak

Chairman of the Board, Polish-Chinese Cooperation Forum, Poland

Mr. Bartosz Michałak is currently Chairman of the Board of the Polish-Chinese Cooperation Forum. In his current position, his responsibilities include enhancing Polish-Chinese cooperation, hosting high-level events and delegations, supporting Polish and Chinese entrepreneurs to cooperate with and invest in one other, and linking Polish and Chinese organizations. Mr. Michałak has also established a Belt and Road Initiative Centre in Warsaw in cooperation with various Polish Universities.

Prior to his current role, Mr. Michałak worked as a Project Director at the Portuguese company EDP Renewables. Since 2013, he has been running his own consulting company under the name of Foton Energia, which offers its services in the fields of energy and infrastructure. He completed two master's degrees, one in Geodesy and the other in Energy, at the Warsaw University of Technology and a postgraduate programme in Marketing at the Warsaw School of Economy.

Ms. Bettina Wanschura

Chief Executive Officer, PlanSinn GmbH, Austria

Ms. Bettina Wanschura's work focuses on the future-oriented development of cities and regions that meets the needs of the inhabitants. She has a background in landscape planning and in facilitating multi-stakeholder decision-making processes. She aims to improve quality of life and urban standards of living but is very sensitive about the genius loci and the specific cultural circumstances and traditions of each city or region.

Since the launch of the European Water Framework Directive, Ms. Wanschura has been actively involved in "translating" its content for the public and in engaging people living in river-catchment areas in decision-making processes regarding the development of their water bodies. In addition, Ms. Wanschura is engaged in research projects focusing on Blue-Green Cities and their social impact, as well as their added value and financial benefits.

Ms. Stacie Adams

Chief Director, Branding and Public Relations, Liugong Corporation, China

Ms. Stacie Adams currently manages all aspects related to branding and communications for Liugong Corporation, including public and media relations. Prior to this, she served as Manager of Branding and Communications for the Overseas Division of Liugong Corporation from 2009 to early 2012.

Ms. Adams brings to the table her extensive experience in both sales and marketing. She began her career in the financial sector as Marketing Manager for EquiFirst Corporation, a major lending company. Under her leadership, the firm rose to a top ten position in the mortgage segment. Ms. Adams received her Bachelor of Arts in International Studies from the University of South Carolina.

Mr. WU Zhiyue

Curator, Fujian Museum, China

Mr. WU Zhiyue is gifted at exhibition design and implementation, has distinctive ideas on administrative management and museum promotion, and believes strongly in the concept of innovative museum brand-building. In 2015, Fujian Museum, under Mr. WU's leadership, became the only state-owned museum to win the Chinese Museum Association's annual award for most innovative museum.

Mr. Walter Peer

Chief Executive Officer, Communalp GmbH, Austria

Mr. Walter Peer has his roots in building and construction. He was Branch Manager of Project Development for a large group of building companies. In 2006, he was elected to the Council of the City Innsbruck. For five years, he was councilor for traffic and environment. During this period, Mr. Peer was also Chairman of the Austrian Traffic Committee and spokesman for traffic of the European Board of Communities and Regions. In 2010, he left his job in politics to found Communalp GmbH, which supports and guides communities in their planning and development processes.

SESSION 5: THEMATIC WORKSHOP ON UNIDO COMPETENCIES TO SUPPORT INCLUSIVE AND SUSTAINABLE URBAN/SUBURBAN DEVELOPMENT

Moderator

Mr. GONG Weixi

Senior Coordinator for South-South and Triangular Industrial Cooperation, United Nations Industrial Development Organization

Mr. GONG Weixi began his career at Shenyang Aircraft Design and Research Institute at the Aviation Industry Corporation of China. He later worked for various international companies, including Siemens and Pfizer Group. While completing his doctoral studies, Mr. GONG worked as a teaching assistant, programmer, researcher and senior system analyst at the Vienna University of Technology.

In 1997, he was recruited by the United Nations Industrial Development Organization (UNIDO) where he held a number of positions prior to being appointed UNIDO Representative in Iran. Since 2011, he has been Senior Coordinator for South-South and Triangular Industrial Cooperation at UNIDO. Mr. GONG holds a Bachelor of Technology from the Beijing University of Aeronautics and Astronautics, a Master of Advanced International Studies from the Diplomatic Academy of Vienna and a PhD in numerical analysis from the Vienna University of Technology.

Keynote Speaker

Mr. Stephan Sicars

Director, Department of Environment, United Nations Industrial Development Organization

Mr. Stephan Sicars was a Senior Programme Officer with the Multilateral Fund for the Implementation of the Montreal Protocol on Substances that Deplete the Ozone Layer for ten years. His main responsibilities were to discuss project and programme assessment, development of funding rules and policies, as well as funding levels with the implementing agencies of the Protocol and the Executive Committee of the Fund. Prior to joining the Multilateral Fund, he worked for a number of years in research, facilitated technology transfer and participated in various international technical panels and task forces.

Mr. Sicars is currently Director of the Department of Environment at the United Nations Industrial Development Organization, which, through the implementation of projects, covers subjects such as cleaner production, water and the management of persistent organic pollutants, as well as mercury, emissions reduction of non-CO₂ climate gases and the phase-out of ozone-depleting substances. He holds a master's degree in Mechanical Engineering from Hanover University with specializations in energy and process engineering.

Presentations by

Mr. Karl Schebesta

Division Chief, Food Systems and Nutrition Division, Department of Agri-Business, United Nations Industrial Development Organization

Mr. Karl Schebesta was previously General Manager and Chief Technology Officer in several Austrian dairy enterprises and a member of the Austrian Codex Alimentarius Commission, as well as a representative of the Austrian Dairy Industry with the European Dairy Association in Brussels. Since 2002, Mr. Schebesta has been working with the Department of Agri-Business at the United Nations Industrial Development Organization, and in 2013, he became Chief of the Food Systems and Nutrition Division. Among other things, Mr. Schebesta specializes in food technology, food safety and quality, as well as post-harvest management. His main areas of expertise are animal-based food products, cereals, fruits and vegetables. He holds a degree in Food Technology from the Agricultural University of Vienna.

Mr. Jerome Stucki

Industrial Development Officer, Emerging Compliance Regimes Division, Department of Environment, United Nations Industrial Development Organization

Mr. Jerome Stucki is a Project Manager at the United Nations Industrial Development Organization (UNIDO) overseeing an Eco-Industrial Park (EIP) project in Vietnam. The project applies UNIDO's approach to retrofitting existing industrial zones into EIPs. In line with UNIDO's mandate, the approach is based on inclusive and sustainable industrial development, delivering economic, environmental and social benefits to reduce poverty. Mr. Stucki also manages projects on corporate social responsibility in Vietnam and China.

More recently, Mr. Stucki designed and implemented interventions related mercury and in particular, artisanal and small-scale gold mining. Prior to joining UNIDO, he worked in the private sector providing technical services such as environmental investigations, baseline studies and impact assessments for various industries. Mr. Stucki holds a Master of Science in Earth Science from the University of Lausanne and a master of advanced studies in Hydrogeology from the University of Neuchatel.

Mr. Bernardo Calzadilla-Sarmiento

Director, Department of Trade, Investment and Innovation, United Nations Industrial Development Organization

Mr. Bernardo Calzadilla-Sarmiento was previously Director of the Trade Capacity Building Branch at the United Nations Industrial Development Organization (UNIDO) as well as a Senior Quality and Standards Expert. He also served as a former UNIDO Deputy Representative to the United Nations and Other International Organizations at UNIDO's office in Geneva. Mr. Calzadilla-Sarmiento was Director for Technical Assistance and Training Services at the International Organization for Standardization (ISO) as well as Secretary of the ISO Policy Committee on Developing Country Matters. In this position, he coordinated the development of the ISO 22000 Food Safety Management Systems, which is a training tool for setting up the implementation and certification of food-safety management systems in small businesses.

Mr. Alois Posekufa Mhlanga

Industrial Development Officer, Renewable and Rural Energy Division, Department of Energy, United Nations Industrial Development Organization

Mr. Alois Posekufa Mhlanga is an Industrial Development Officer in the Department of Energy at the United Nations Industrial Development Organization (UNIDO). He has over eighteen years of experience in the sustainable-energy and climate-change field. He currently manages UNIDO's renewable-energy projects in Africa and Asia. He is responsible for flagship programmes such as the design and creation of the ECOWAS Centre for Renewable Energy and Energy Efficiency and the Global Cleantech Innovation Programme. Before joining UNIDO, Mr. Mhlanga was a Renewable Energy Expert at the African Development Bank managing a vast portfolio of renewable-energy and sustainable-energy investment projects across Africa. Before that, he was the principal sustainable-energy expert at the Southern Centre for Energy and Environment and a part-time lecturer at the University of Zimbabwe for the Master of Science in Renewable Energy programme.

Mr. Wolfgang Loibl

Thematic Coordinator, Sustainable Buildings and Cities, Austrian Institute of Technology (AIT), Austria

Mr. Wolfgang Loibl was employed by the Austrian Institute of Technology (AIT) after five years working as a spatial planner. At AIT, he works as a regional scientist, spatial planner and policy adviser in the fields of urban and regional development, as well as environmental planning and impact assessment. His work focuses on spatial analysis and modeling with an emphasis on urban development, environmental impact analysis, climate-change adaptation and related policies at both the national and European Union levels.

Mr. Loibl has been working with AIT for thirty years. For fifteen years, he taught geographic information system based spatial modeling and systems modeling as a university lecturer at the Universities of Graz and Vienna. He has been engaged as a project and work-package leader in various national and international projects. Mr. Loibl holds master's degrees in Geography and Regional Planning and Organization Development and a PhD from the University of Vienna.

Mr. Nebojsa Nakicenovic

Deputy Director General and Deputy Chief Executive Officer; Senior Research Scholar, Transitions To New Technologies, International Institute for Applied Systems Analysis (IIASA), Austria

Mr. Nebojsa Nakicenovic has been engaged in the work of the Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change (IPCC) in various capacities for the past twenty-five years. He was Convening Lead Author of the IPCC Third Assessment Report and Coordinating Lead Author of the IPCC Fourth Assessment Report. Most recently, he was a Lead Author of the IPCC Fifth Assessment Report. Mr. Nakicenovic was a Member of the Steering Committee of the Austrian Panel on the Climate Change Assessment Report and Director of the Global Energy Assessment from 2006 to 2012. Throughout his career, he has authored and contributed to many other reports and publications related to climate change, energy and sustainability.

Mr. Nakicenovic holds bachelor's and master's degrees in Economics and Computer Science from Princeton University and the University of Vienna, where he also completed his PhD. He also holds a PhD (honoris causa) in Engineering from the Russian Academy of Sciences.

SESSION 6: MAYORAL FORUM AND DIALOGUE (I)

Moderator

Ms. Amita Misra

Director, Department of Regional Programmes and Field Representation, United Nations Industrial Development Organization

Ms. Amita Misra was Senior Adviser to the Director-General and Director of the Financial Services Branch of the United Nations Industrial Development Organization (UNIDO) from 2004 to 2010. Prior to joining UNIDO in 2004, she had a career in the Indian Civil Service spanning twenty-five years. She has served in the Federal, State and Municipal Governments and in major Indian Public Sector Enterprises, bringing to bear extensive governmental, financial and executive experience. In these assignments, Ms. Misra led large teams on operational issues and headed several departments of the Government of India. She also carried out oversight functions for the United Nations as the United Nations Auditor representing her country.

After completing a post-graduate degree in Economics, Ms. Misra joined the Indian Civil Service, specifically the Finance Service. Thereafter, she studied Finance for two years at the Government Finance Academy. In preparation for higher responsibilities as a senior executive, Ms. Misra attended a course at India's National Defence College for Indian and International Government Executives.

Keynote Speaker

Mr. Roman Serdar Mendle

Smart Cities Program Manager; Global Coordinator for Smart Cities, ICLEI - Local Governments for Sustainability, Germany

Mr. Roman Serdar Mendle is the Smart Cities Program Manager at the ICLEI World Secretariat. Mr. Mendle and his team also coordinate ICLEI's work on city-business collaboration as well as the Transformative Actions Program, a project pipeline through which cities gain access to bankability and funding support services for local climate action. A sustainability scientist by training, with five years of professional experience, Mr. Mendle has expertise in sustainable transitions of complex urban systems, industrial transformation and energy transition in cities, standardization for smart cities, low-carbon development, and environmental management, as well as city-to-city exchange and city-business cooperation.

Mr. Mendle also has regional expertise in urban development and sustainability in China and is responsible for the creation of the Sustainable Urban China conference series under the Sino-German Urbanization Partnership, organized by his team at the ICLEI World Secretariat. He holds a Master of Science in Environmental Studies and Sustainability Science from Lund University in Sweden and a bachelor's degree in Economics and Politics of East Asia from Ruhr University Bochum and Renmin University of China.

Panellists

Mr. Oleg Polumordvinov

Mayor, Astrakhan, Russian Federation

Mr. Oleg Polumordvinov was Adviser to the Mayor of Astrakhan City on issues of construction, architecture and land utilization and was First Deputy Chairman of Astrakhan City Administration's Committee on Capital Construction from 2005 until 2007. From 2007 to 2009, he was Director of State Expertise for project documents on territorial planning, project documentation and engineering surveys of the Astrakhan region. In 2009, he was appointed Deputy Chairman of the Government of Astrakhan region and Minister of Construction and Roads. Following that, he was appointed Deputy Chairman of the Government of Astrakhan Region for functionality of life-supply systems and environmental safety, after which he was elected Head of the Administration of Astrakhan City.

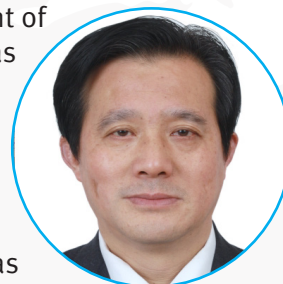

Mr. Polumordvinov graduated from Astrakhan Technical Institute of Fishing Industry with a specialization in industrial and city construction. He also received his postgraduate education at Astrakhan Technical Institute of Fishing Industry. Mr. Polumordvinov has a range of scientific and technical publications in the areas of household and road construction and engineering surveys. He is an Associate Professor in the Construction Department of Astrakhan State Technical University.

Mr. GUI Lin

Vice Mayor, Chizhou, China

Mr. GUI Lin is in charge of issues concerning the development and overall management of Chizhou's tourist economy, commercial economy, education, sports and culture. He has worked in the sector of tourism management for years and is currently overseeing the development of a comprehensive plan for fostering region-based tourism in Chizhou. From 1991 to 2000, Mr. GUI worked in Shitai County as the Deputy Director of Shitai County People's Government. He was promoted to Director of the Chizhou Municipal Tourism Bureau in 2001 and later worked as Director until 2010. He then served as Secretary-General of Chizhou Municipal Commission from 2010 to 2012. He has served as the Deputy Mayor of Chizhou Municipal Government since 2012. Mr. GUI holds a bachelor's in Economics from Anhui University.

Ms. Frida Elizabeth

Head, Small-Medium Enterprises and Creative Industry Sub-Division, Department for Industry and Energy, Jakarta, Indonesia

Ms. Frida Elizabeth is responsible for determining and coordinating the sharing of resources available to develop small and medium-sized enterprises and creative industries in her position as Head of the Small-Medium Enterprises and Creative Industry Sub-Division at the Department for Industry and Energy. In her current role, which she has held since 2010, she has coordinated various projects and trainings. Ms. Elizabeth holds a bachelor's degree in Industrial Engineering from Telkom University in Bandung, Indonesia.

Mr. Oscar S. Moreno

Mayor, Cagayan de Oro, Philippines

Mr. Oscar S. Moreno’s career spans more than twenty years in the corporate legal profession and over fifteen years in public service. He began his career as a trial attorney of the Philippine National Railways and later became the corporate legal counsel of major financial institutions such as the Ayala Investment and Development Corporation, Bank of the Philippines Islands and Citibank, among others. He then went on to become Associate Director of the Strategic Planning Group of Ayala Corporation and Vice President and Chief Legal Counsel of BPI Capital Corporation.

In his tenure as Mayor of Cagayan de Oro, Mr. Moreno has helped transform the city into the economic hub of the southern Philippines. Cagayan de Oro has been named an “Emerging City of Tomorrow” by UN-Habitat and was declared grand winner of the United States Agency for International Development’s “Liveable Cities Design Challenge 2014”. Mr. Moreno holds a bachelor of laws from San Beda College and has participated in executive training programmes at Kennedy School of Government, Harvard University.

Mr. Massimiliano De Martin

Veneto Regional Government Member, Venice, Italy

Mr. Massimiliano De Martin has had twenty years of experience as a provincial and regional representative and as president of the “Order of Surveyors”. He became a candidate for City Council because of his expertise and his belief in the local residents and the businesses that drive the community on a daily basis. Mr. De Martin holds a degree in Surveying and was active in this field in the city of Mestre for over twenty-five years.

SESSION 6: MAYORAL FORUM AND DIALOGUE (II)

Moderator

Mr. Roman Serdar Mendle (please see page 19)

Keynote Speaker

Mr. GU Chaolin One-Road

Professor, School of Architecture, Tsinghua University, China

Mr. GU Chaolin is a Professor at the School of Architecture at Tsinghua University, Vice President of the Chinese Futurology Association and Councilman of the China Society for Urban Sciences. In addition, he is a member of the Science and Technology Committee at the Ministry of Housing and Construction. Mr. GU was a visiting scholar in the Department of Geography and Planning at the University of Toronto in the academic year 1992 to 1993 and in the Centre of Urban Planning and Environmental Management at the University of Hong Kong in 1994 and 1995. He has also been a Visiting Professor at the Institute of Social and Economic Geography at the University of Leuven.

Mr. GU is engaged mainly in research into urban and regional planning, as well as regional economics and urban geography in China. Since 1986, he has published twenty-six monographs and more than 380 papers. He has successfully led many major research and planning projects and won several prestigious prizes. Mr. GU holds bachelor’s, master’s and PhD degrees from the School of Geographic and Oceanographic Sciences at Nanjing University.

Panellists

H.E. Mr. Sheikh Abdulla Rashid al Khalifa (please see page 4)

Ms. Tanja Wehsely (please see page 12)

Mr. Leszek Drogosz

Director of Infrastructure Department of Warsaw City Hall, Warsaw, Poland

Mr. Leszek Drogosz is responsible for climate protection, energy, water and wastewater management in the City of Warsaw. He has spent his entire career working for city, particularly in the management of enterprises dealing with transportation, water, wastewater, heat and solid waste. He has been involved in the implementation of several large and medium-sized European Union projects such as those co-financed by the EU Cohesion Fund. Mr. Drogosz has extensive experience working with NGOs and has represented Warsaw in the EUROCIITIES Climate and Energy Working Group and the C40 Large Cities Climate Leadership Group.

Mr. Drogosz has also served as Deputy Chairman of the Management Board of Association of Municipalities Polish Network “Energie Cités” and as a member of the Management Board of the Warsaw Tourism Organization. He is also one of the designers and Deputy Chairman of the Climate Protection Team established within Warsaw City Hall, which is chaired by the Mayor of Warsaw. As the Director of the Infrastructure Department, Mr. Drogosz is responsible for the overall implementation of the Sustainable Energy Action Plan.

Mr. LIU Bijian

Vice Mayor, Fuqing, China

Mr. LIU Bijian began his work in Fuzhou City as a Primary School teacher in 1989. He then worked as Secretary of the Communist Youth League and Deputy Director of the Education Bureau. In his current role as Vice Mayor of Fuqing, he is in charge of business, foreign trade, shipping, investment, counterpart aid and foreign affairs.

Mr. Simone Venturini

Veneto Regional Government Member, Venice, Italy

Mr. Simone Venturini was elected City Councilor of Venice at the age of twenty-two in 2010. In that role, he has primarily sought to redress activities related to drugs and crime. Mr. Venturini is committed to the protection of the city and its workers and is particularly interested in the correlation between work, economic development and municipal welfare. He graduated with a law degree from the University of Padua.

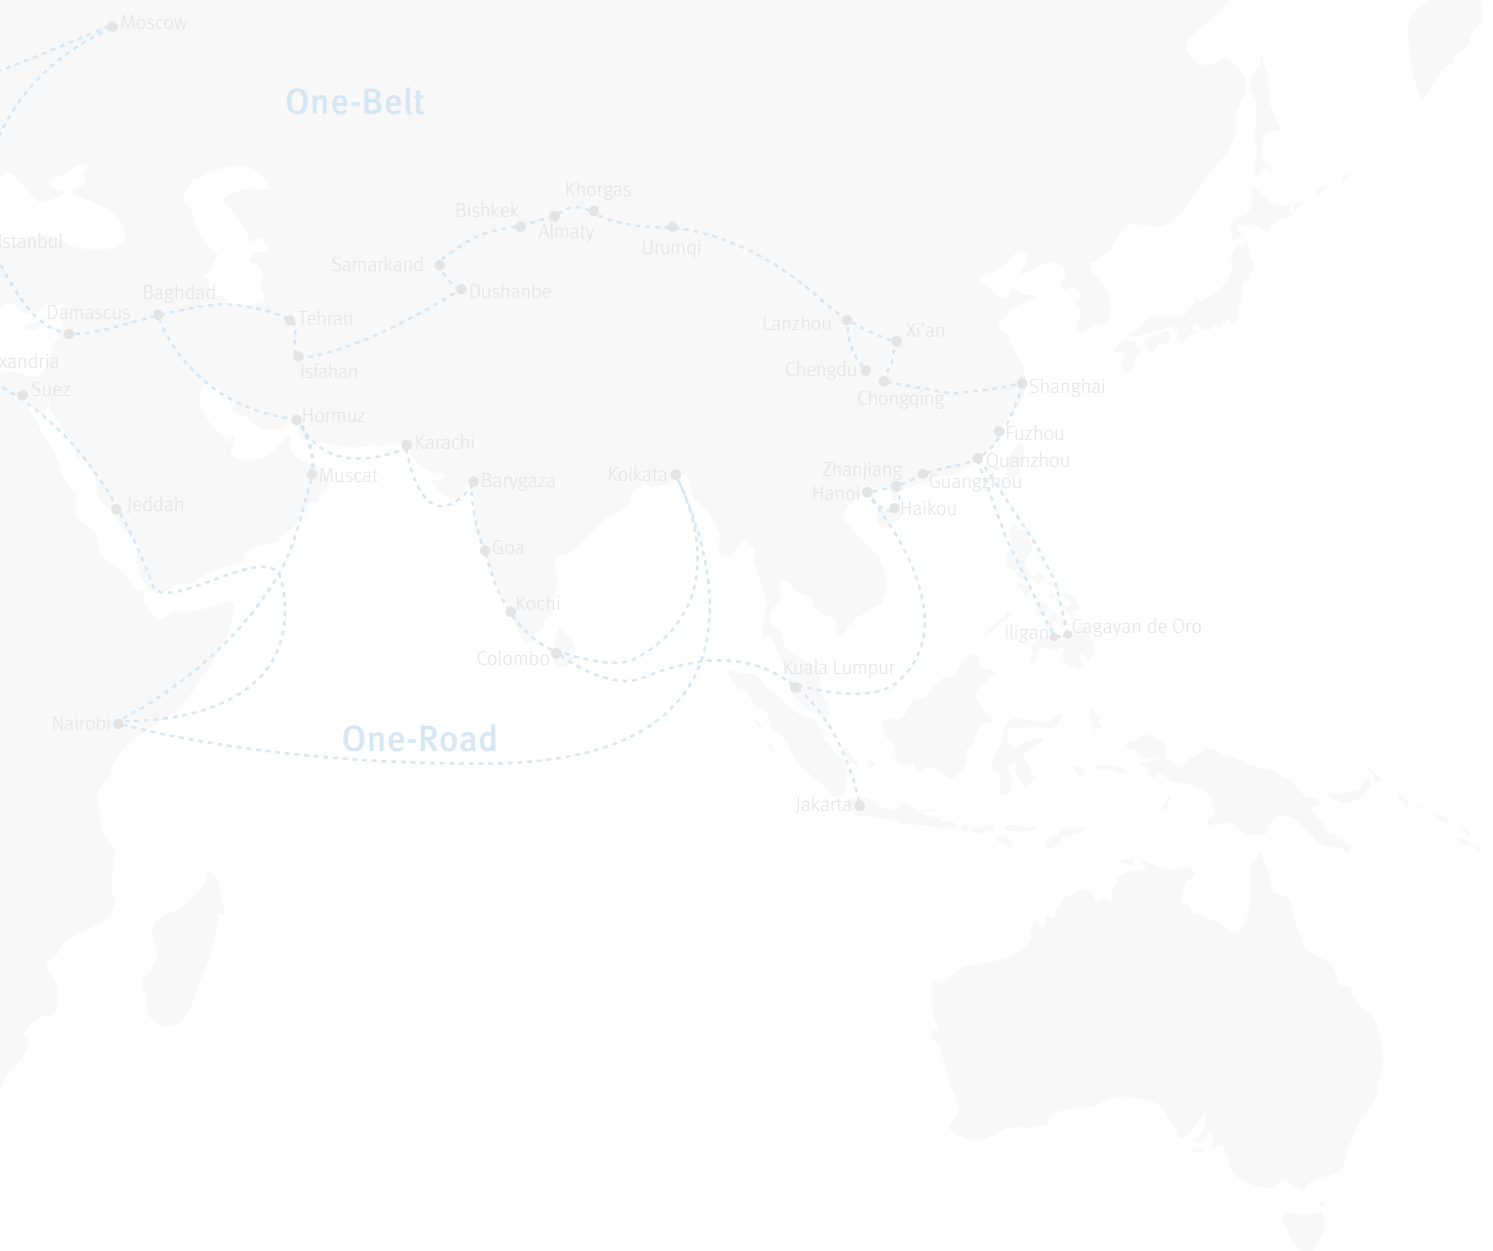

ACHIEVEMENT HIGHLIGHTS AND CLOSING REMARKS

Mr. Taizo Nishikawa

Deputy to the Director General; Managing Director, External Relations and Field Representation, United Nations Industrial Development Organization

Mr. Taizo Nishikawa served in the Cabinet Office of the Government of Japan as Deputy Director General for Science and Technology Policy and Deputy Director General of the Office of Atomic Energy Policy from 2007 until 2009. Earlier in his career, Mr. Nishikawa served in various positions in the Ministry of Economy, Trade and Industry, including as Director of the Conformity Assessment Division, Director of the Automotive Parts Industry and Director of the Regional Industry Promotion Office. Mr. Nishikawa joined UNIDO as Head of the Investment Technology and Promotion Office in Tokyo in July 2009. He obtained a Bachelor of Engineering from the University of Tokyo and a PhD in Engineering from the University of Tohoku.

UNITED NATIONS
INDUSTRIAL DEVELOPMENT ORGANIZATION

Vienna International Centre, P.O. Box 300, 1400 Vienna, Austria
Telephone: (+43-1) 26026-0, Fax: (+43-1) 26926-69
E-mail: unido@unido.org, Internet: www.unido.org