

Andrew Fallon
Associate Director

Associate Director, Andrew Fallon has more than 18 years' experience working on a broad range of construction projects in the Middle East, Ireland and Hong Kong. With many years as a Chartered Quantity Surveyor in the main contracting industry prior to his consultancy roles has provided Andrew with valuable insight and understanding of the issues that arise in construction disputes and the means to identify potential solutions for their resolution. He has good working knowledge of International Federation of Consulting Engineers (FIDIC), Public Works Authority (PWA) and bespoke forms of contract.

Andrew has a BSc in Surveying, a Master's degree in Arts, an LLM Construction Law & Arbitration and a Diploma in Construction Economics. He is a Member of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators (MCIArb), a Member of the Royal Institute of Chartered Surveyors (MRICS), a Member of the Society of Chartered Surveyors of Ireland (MSCSI) and a Member of Project Management Institute (PMP).

Rob Valenta
Creative Director

Rob Valenta is the Creative Director at Quantum's sister company Quantum Digital. He looks after Quantum's in-house media studios in Doha and London, where he manages his talented teams of designers and artists in both studios. Rob is responsible for the creative direction of Quantum's unique multimedia solutions, publishing and creative marketing. In addition Rob serves all Quantum's international blue chip clients with captivating visual and creative solutions. His career started at the BBC Television Centre in London, where he transformed the weather report graphics from 2d to 3d, as well as producing and organising real-time graphics for BBC's live coverage of the UK local elections and the 1997 UK General Election. Upon leaving the BBC, Rob submerged himself into the vibrant and highly creative London's Soho advertising and creative melting pot. During these colourful years, Rob had the pleasure working with some of the biggest brands in the world, in particular producing Star Wars print work directly for Lucas Films in the United States. Prior in joining Quantum, Rob was a Director for one of the top architectural visualisation studios in the UK producing architectural and animated walkthroughs for some of the most recognisable landmark developments in London.

Rob has a BA (Hons) in Art & Design - specialised in Technical Illustration and Information Graphics.
