

UK-China Maritime Services Exchange

UK-China Shipping: The Future is Today

11 September 2019, 10:00 @ The Leadenhall Building

Hosted by Department for International Trade

Co-organised by

伦敦华人航运协会

Chinese Shipping Association of London

supported by  Baltic Exchange

Official sponsor

Supported by

Chinese Shipping Association of London (CSAL)

is joining forces with Maritime London and Xinde Marine News, to co-organise a sino-UK day of activities, hosted by the UK Department of International Trade (DIT) as part of their Global Trade Hub for London International Shipping Week 2019 (LISW).

This event will bring together leading representatives from the Chinese shipping sector and UK experts from the maritime services sector to discuss two of the most topical issues affecting the maritime industries today. It will also offer an opportunity for UK and Chinese companies to discuss potential collaboration in a scheduled face-to-face meeting at a dedicated venue (121 meetings), with translating services available on request, and over a Chinese lunch.

REGISTER: <https://bit.ly/2IQHpuQ>

Programme

- 10.00 Registration
- 10.15 Welcome from Robin King
Keynote Address from Lord Mountevans,
Chairman, Maritime London
- 10.40 Wang Zhenyong, VP, ICBC Finance & Leasing
- 10.50 PANEL DISCUSSION Sulphur cap and beyond: the need for collaboration in addressing the climate change challenge in shipping Panelist chair: James Forsdyke, Head of Product Development, Lloyd's Register
Panelists: Edmund Hughes, Head, Air
Pollution and Energy Efficiency, IMO,
Burak Cetinok, Head of Research, Arrow
Shipbroking;
Gary Chen, CEO, Xinde Marine News
- 12.00 PANEL DISCUSSION Digitalisation of shipping:
how UK expertise can support the adoption of new technologies within the Chinese sector
Panelist chair: Ian Gooch, Chief Executive,
London P&I Club
Panelists: Shaun Crawford, Global Vice Chair,
Industry, EY;
Liu Qianwen, Vice President, Elane Inc;
Nick Maddalena, Head of Insurance,
Windward
- 12.55 Closing: Jeffrey Yao, Chinese Shipping
Association of London
- 13.00 Networking lunch & 121 meetings

