

Monday, 28 March: Hybrid*

*Monday 28 March will be a hybrid day, with an in-person day at the QEII Centre, London and online. All sessions will be live-streamed, however delegates joining in-person will gain access to exclusive practical masterclasses.

		Fleming (Third floor)	Whittle (Third floor)	St. James (Fourth floor)	Abbey (Fourth floor)	Moore (Fourth floor)
MONDAY, 28 MARCH 2022	From 9.00	Registration (ground floor) and exhibition (Britten)
	10.00-11.00	Practical masterclass: Prevention of type 2 diabetes in children and young people	Practical masterclass: Health inequalities in diabetes	Practical masterclass: The role of technology in diabetes education	Practical masterclass: Evidence to the rescue of type 2 diabetes: Debate: What will be the most impactful change in coming years?
	11.15-12.15	Opening plenary
	12.15-12.30	Lunch (Britten) On-site delegates: Lunch can be taken with you into session rooms
	12.30-14.00	Update on Inpatient Care	Multimorbidity through the lens of diabetes	Major successes of the last decade	Hypo-RESOLVE: Hypoglycaemia – REdefining SOLutions for better lIVES	Diabetes and cancer
	14.00-15.15	14.15- 15.15 Sponsored symposia: Making a difference to people living with diabetes and high cardiovascular risk: Meet the experts This is a promotional symposia sponsored by Lilly. PP-LD-GB-1533 March 2022	Coffee and exhibition (Britten)
	15.30-16.45	Practical masterclass: What will diabetes services look like in 10 years?	Practical masterclass: Onwards and upwards in Primary Care diabetes: Why, what and how?	Practical masterclass: How do we help the 'lost tribe'?	Practical masterclass: Diving below the surface: Using the iceberg model to better understand a challenge
	17.00-18.30	The role of Artificial Intelligence (AI) and digital technology in diabetes care	Latest advances in diabetes technology	Managing diabetes in the older person	Sexual healing in the diabetes clinic	Tackling obesity and the stigma of obesity in type 1 and type 2 diabetes management

		Drinks reception (Britten)
	19.00-20.00		Sponsored symposia: Current barriers of CSII initiation, benefits and future of insulin delivery systems Kindly sponsored by Insulet

Tuesday, 29 March to Friday, 1 April: Online only

TUESDAY, 29 MARCH 2022	11.25- 12.15	Banting Memorial Lecture Type 2 diabetes and nonalcoholic fatty liver disease: Partners in crime Chris Byrne, Southampton
	12.30- 14.00	Hot topics in Primary Care	Identifying and addressing risk factors of intended self-injury or suicide in routine clinical care: Meeting needs of HCPs in supporting their patients	Type 1 diabetes screening, prevention and immunotherapy	Young Diabetologists and Endocrinologists Forum Travel Award	Basic Science
	14.15- 15.15	Sponsored symposia
	15.45- 16.35	Arnold Bloom Lecture Diabetes, ethnic minority groups and covid-19: An inevitable storm Kamlesh Khunti, Leicester
	17.00- 18.30	Diabetes remission programmes: Update and acceptability in diverse communities	Diabetic Medicine symposium: Big Data: Sources and challenges: The evidence base for use in diabetes and future potential	Beta cell stress in pathogenesis of diabetes	Diabetes UK Education and Self-management Award	Complications
	19.00- 20.00	Sponsored symposia: Diabetes management: The times they are a-changing This is a promotional symposia for healthcare professionals only sponsored by Sanofi

WEDNESDAY,	11.25- 12.15
------------	--------------	--

DIABETES UK

PROFESSIONAL CONFERENCE 2022

Hybrid 28 March
QEII Centre, London
Online 29 March to 1 April

30 MARCH 2022		Mary MacKinnon Lecture Diabetes Care for You: Leadership, Followership, Partnership Diabetes Care for You, Mouluscoomb
	12.30- 14.00	Consultants and Specialist Trainees Professional Interest Group	Dietitians Professional Interest Group	Pharmacists Professional Interest Group	Diabetes Specialist Nurses Professional Interest Group	Podiatrists Professional Interest Group
	14.15- 15.15	Sponsored symposia: Dr Emma Wilmot's memory box: 10-year revolution of diabetes technology Kindly sponsored by Abbott
	15.45- 16.35	Janet Kinson Lecture Supporting people with type 2 diabetes who need insulin Kirsty Winkley, London
	17.00- 18.30	Wound care for the diabetic foot	Flash UK Trial	How should euglycaemia be defined?	Clinical care: Diabetes real-world studies	Case reports
	19.00- 20.00	Sponsored symposia: How to tailor mealtime insulin to individual needs This is a promotional symposia sponsored by Lilly. PP-LD-GB-1533 March 2022

THURSDAY, 31 MARCH 2022	11.25- 12.15	Dorothy Hodgkin Lecture Remembrance of things past Rory McCrimmon, Dundee
	12.30- 14.00	Primary Care Professional Interest Group	Midwives and Pregnancy Professional Interest Group	Research Specialists Professional Interest Group	Paediatrics Professional Interest Group	Psychosocial care Professional Interest Group
	14.15- 15.15	Sponsored symposium: Improving clinical outcomes for adult patients with type 2 diabetes: achieving multiple, cardiovascular, renal and metabolic benefits The promotional symposium session has been developed and funded by Boehringer Ingelheim and Lilly Alliance for UK Healthcare Professionals. NP-GB-102774 March 2022

	17.00- 18.30	Tackling inequalities	Responsible prescribing in relation to new drugs and indications	Sleep disturbance, circadian disruption and diabetes	Diabetes UK Early Career Investigator Award	Clinical care: Glycaemic control
	19.00- 20.00	Sponsored symposia: Omega-3 Fatty Acids: A new approach in lipid management to optimise outcomes in patients with ASCVD This symposium is endorsed by Leicester Diabetes Centre and accredited for 1 CPD credit by the Royal College of Physicians. Supported by an unrestricted educational grant from Amarin Corporation.

FRIDAY, 1 APRIL 2022	11.25- 12.15	Harry Keen Rank Nutrition Lecture Nutritional guidelines for diabetes management: Where do they come from and do they work? Pamela Dyson, Oxford
	12.30- 14.00	Update on ophthalmology	Progress in regenerative medicine and stem cell therapy in diabetes	Upskilling Primary Care to manage type 1 diabetes	Clinical science	Clinical care: Ethnicity and insights from cohort studies
	14.15- 15.15	Sponsored symposia: Real-time CGM as the emerging new standard of care for all insulin users: empowering diabetes management. Kindly sponsored by Dexcom
	15.45- 16.35	RD Lawrence Lecture Minding the gap between hypoglycaemia and its detection Pratik Choudhary, Leicester
	17.00- 18.30	Challenges in diabetes care for the next decade	Quality Improvement Interventions: Diabetes Service Models in Primary Care	Covid-19 catch-up	Approaches to managing type 2 diabetes in children and young people	Awards Ceremony
	19.00- 20.00	Sponsored symposia: The use of AI, machine learning, and digital therapeutics (DTx) for behavioral modification Kindly sponsored by Glooko

Awards sessions

Breaks

DIABETES UK
PROFESSIONAL
CONFERENCE 2022

Hybrid 28 March
QEII Centre, London
Online 29 March to 1 April

Diabetes UK Professional Interest Groups

Named Lectures

Oral abstract sessions

Plenary sessions

Practical masterclasses

Sponsored symposia sessions

Symposia sessions