LEARN FROM THE JOURNEYS OF OTHERS

Take your own journey too, and enjoy the adventure

- Be sure to have your go-to-hell budget in place; if you don't feel you have choices, you won't take chances
- Take chances! Once you decide you don't have to do it their way, you don't need to use their yardstick!
- Develop interpersonal skills-- don't be the one who is always right, but cannot be heard
- Feed your soul... periodically. You will have to do the work to get the opportunities, and so make sure you have the stamina.
- Leadership is lonely and hard because you are asking people to change. Be better at making and executing on the hard decisions than others.
- Find your unique gift and exercise it!

JUST TWO PIECES OF ADVICE

#1 Find people (bosses) who teach you and give you opportunity

#2 The single largest measure of success in anything is your overwhelming drive to succeed!
