

RUNNING ORDER

10:30am	Welcome &amp; Introductions Pete Shorrick, Head of Midlands and East of England, Diabetes UK	CGM is the future - Lessons from GLAM and MAGIC Eleanor Scott, Professor of Diabetes and Maternal Health at the School of Medicine, University of Leeds	2:30pm	Hybrid Closed-Loop (HCL) in T1D pregnancy: Why CamAPS FX is recommended during T1D pregnancy: Overview of evidence from randomised trials and real-world studies – Professor Helen Murphy, University of East Anglia, Honorary Consultant Physician, Norfolk & Norwich University Hospital NHS Foundation Trust
10:35am	Spotlight on womens health from a diabetes perspective T1 and T2D pregnancy priorities, NDA dashboards, GDM audit Claire Hambling, National Clinical Director for Diabetes & Obesity, NHS England	Harnessing large datasets (HDR UK) Professor Rebecca Reynolds, University of Edinburgh		Lived experience Nina Willer
11:05am	Clinical trials in GDM evidence update Lessons from DIGEST Dr Claire Meek, University of Cambridge, Dept of Clinical Biochemistry Lessons from Bump2Baby Sharleen O’ Reilly, Dietitian, University College, Dublin/Christy Burden, Associate Professor in Obstetrics, Bristol Medical School Q &amp; A Panel discussion	12:50pm Abstracts Dr Robert Lindsay, Endocrinology, University of Glasgow – Chair		Practical tips and tricks for use of CamAPS FX during pregnancy, labour and birth Dr Tara Lee , Clinical Research Fellow, University of East Anglia, Speciality Registrar (O&G), Norfolk & Norwich University Hospital NHS Trust
11:45am	Break – Virtual networking including viewing of abstract submissions	1:20pm Diabetes Prevention following GDM pregnancy How effective is the National Diabetes Prevention Programme Emma Barron, Senior Analytical Manager, Imperial College London, Gestational Diabetes and the NHS Diabetes Prevention Programme, NHS England Pharmacotherapy for prevention of T2D Professor John Wilding, Diabetes & Endocrinology, University of Liverpool		HCL Benefits and barriers Practicalities of starting HCL in Pregnancy. Eleanor Scott, Professor of Diabetes and Maternal Health at the School of Medicine, University of Leeds Molly Joseph (DSN), Jess Galloway (DSN)
12:00pm	Diagnosis of GDM past, present and future Time to revisit HbA1c Professor Ponnusamy Saravanan, Warwick Medical School			Getting your antenatal team started - NHSE perspective Partha Kar, Consultant, Portsmouth Hospitals, NHS Trust / Karen Kennedy, Deputy Director, NHS Diabetes Programme, NHSE
		2:15pm Break – Virtual networking including viewing of abstract submissions		Q &amp; A Panel discussion
			3:55pm	Closing comments
			4:00pm	Close